- • Section 276BB of the Act is amended to provide that the prosecution shall not be instituted against a person covered under the said section, if the payment of the tax collected at source has been made to the credit of the Central Government at any time on or before the time prescribed for filing the quarterly statement respect of such payment.

Conclusion:

To conclude, the direct tax proposals in Budget 2025 introduce a mix of structural changes and rationalization measures aimed at fostering compliance, simplifying tax administration, and promoting economic growth. With revised tax slabs, enhanced deductions under the new tax regime, and targeted incentives for businesses, the government continues to refine the tax landscape to balance revenue mobilization with taxpayer relief. Additionally, amendments in capital gains taxation, IFSC incentives, and rationalization of exemptions reflect a strategic push towards modernization and global competitiveness. As these provisions take effect, individuals and businesses must assess their financial planning strategies to align with the evolving tax framework. Staying informed and proactive will be key to optimizing tax efficiency in the coming fiscal year.
